Alanis Morissette, Simple Together

You've been my golden best friend Now with post-demise at hand Can't go to you for consolation Cause we're off limits during this transition This grief overwhelms me It burns in my stomach And i can't stop bumping into things I thought we'd be simple together I thought we'd be happy together Thought we'd be limitless together I thought we'd be precious together But i was sadly mistaken You've been my soulmate and mentor I remembered you the moment i met you With you i knew god's face was handsome With you i suffered an expansion This loss is numbing me It pierces my chest And i can't stop dropping everything I thought we'd be sexy together Thought we'd be evolving together I thought we'd have children together I thought we'd be family together But i was sadly mistaken If i had a bill for all the philosophies i shared If i had a penny for all the possibilities i presented If i had a dime for every hand thrown up in the air My wealth would render this no less severe I thought we'd be genius together I thought we'd be healing together I thought we'd be growing together Thought we'd be adventurous togheter But i was sadly mistaken Thought we'd be exploring together Thought we'd be inspired together I thought we'd be flying together Thought we'd be on fire together But i was sadly mistaken [vocalizes]
