

Alanis Morissette, So Pure (Live)

You're from New York, you are so relevant
You reduce me to cosmic tears
Luminous more so than most anyone, unapologetically alive
Knot in my stomach and lump in my throat
Love you when you dance, when you freestyle in trance
So pure such an expression
Love you when you dance, when you freestyle in trance
So pure such an expression
Supposed former infatuation junkie
I sink three pointers and you wax poetically
Love you when you dance, when you freestyle in trance
So pure such an expression
Love you when you dance, when you freestyle in trance
So pure such an expression
Let's grease the wheel over tea
Let's discuss things in confidence
Let's be outspoken, let's be ridiculous
Let's solve the world's problems
Love you when you dance, when you freestyle in trance
So pure such an expression
Love you when you dance, when you freestyle in trance
So pure such an expression
