

Alessi, Farewell

Doo-doo-doo oh oh oh yeah
When I asleep Im guaranteed
To wake up in agony Dreaming all night long about you, girl
I look at you with all your old stuff
But the years now thats enough Time for me to move myself away
Now, don't scape to my hanging I'm so alone Me, I'm lonely it has been a hard game were not over, I know its true do not worry, Ill be telling you its our secret
Be informed that Ill get shifted 'cause I got caught by someone else and you got to throw all your old things away hey hey I think its time that you and I take our in-check and say goodbye rather on leaving and saying goodbye rather on leaving and saying goodbye, its farewell My my farewell
