

Alex Band, Take Hold Of Me

Never been more alone
I'm sinking like a stone
Seems everything I knew
No longer gets me through this madness
I can't take it now
Everything I planned
Has crumbled into sand
And slipped into the sea
Would someone please save me from this pain?
'Cause I'm going insane
So take hold of me
Please take hold of me
Take hold of me
And never let me go
Don't let me go
The people I leaned on
One blink and they are gone
And so I turn to you
To pull my lost soul out of this love
I'm dying for love
So take hold of me
Please take hold of me
Take hold of me
And never let me go
Don't let me go
Don't let me go
Can you see me?
Find me?
Free me?
Just take hold of me
Yeah, take hold of me
Well take hold of me
I've got nowhere left to go
Well take hold of me
Take hold of me
Well take hold of me
And never let me go
I'll be alright
