

Alex Kaneko, Live Away

awake with your eyes closed just enough to lie flat on your back and you ask cuz you don't know why was it yesterday or something from a dream? is it fantasy or something in between?
but the day won't start 'til you pull away the blinds and the night won't end if you're scared of what you'll find so stop
cuz you're rolling off the wrong side of your bed
then go
when you're through with all the voices in your head and wake up singing (silly wailing)
live away your life away singing (more silly wailing)
well you're shattered from the inside out but you flaunt your broken duct taped heart is it easy to laugh with your eyes full of stars and your mind full of doubt? oh stop
and take a breath and let it all sink in
then go
cuz the timing's right if you just know when to sing so sing it now
etc.
