

Alex Lloyd, Safe To Say

If I find a role back when
We were more than absent friends
When it feels too far away
Nothing is so safe to say
When you fall down at my feet again

Turn the page
A story's told
Dress it up
Discard the mould
When it feels too far away
Nothing is so safe to say
When you fall down at my feet

When it feels too far away
Nothing is so safe to say
When you fall down at my feet
