Let You Go

Francine's been crying on the telephone today
She asked me if a saw you
She talk about you and said that you were hers
And boy it's givin' me the blues

So now it's time we've got to talk it over
I've passed the way with only shame at my side
It's up to me can't stay just shedding tears now
So instead i let you go

I let you go

I let you go
