

Alexisonfire, Counter Parts & Number Them

Jennifer, they lied to you
When they said you
Couldn't breathe underwater
So here it is, the end is near
(I lied, too, when I said that I was hard, I'm soft)
Never would've thought this might
Be something you'd so easily discard
(Softer than a)
Now I see it all so clear
So it seems that when you turned away
(Thrift store, thrift store, thrift store)
You left a scar
(Sweater)
Twice as worn in
Twice as worn in
I was cast away once
But I will be found again
This I promise you, promise you, you
