Alexisonfire, Heading For The Sun

They are the nameless victims of a generation lost

Searching for somewhere to exist

Held captive by our mistakes

Weak and unable to resist

Resentful minds have ruled too long

Young and old, weak and strong

We will drag our hindsight through the twilight of this era

To where our freedom reigns and the old thought is laid to dust

Let the philistines wallow in their decadence

While the enlightened minds usher in the dawning of a new

We are heading for the sun, we are

We are heading for the sun, we are

We are heading for the sun, we are

We are heading for the sun

Time will come when we are all condemned

For the damage we have done

Held accountable for all

Battles lost, battles won

We are heading for the sun, we are

We are heading for the sun, we are

We are heading for the sun, we are

We are heading for the sun

And the earth will coil each year, getting closer to its end

What will our lesson be, when we are all ablaze?

That our benevolence was the start of our decay

Or that we did not learn from the mistakes of the past?

We are heading for the sun, we are

We are heading for the sun, we are

We are heading for the sun, we are

We are heading for the sun
