

Alexz Johnson, Im in love with my guitar

IM IN LOVE WITH MY GUITAR

Ive been tryin too hard
Ive been spinnin around
Got people chasin me down
I gotta find a way back
To my world somehow, somehow
Right now i wanna get lost
Inside a song
Where theres no right or wrong
In my room all alones
Where i belong
My life is mine once im behind the door
Whenever were together no ones a star
I can pour it all out right from the heart
If its up to me well never be apart
Im in love with my guitar
I grab a handful of strings
Ive been dying to play
It carries me far away
I dont need to explain
When ive got nothin to say, oh yeah
If i break down thats all the sound i make
Whenever were together no ones a star
I can pour it all out right from the heart
If its up to me well never be apart
Im in love with my guitar
Keeper of my secrets
Part of all my dreams
Somehow were connected
From a whisper to a scream
Whenever were together no ones a star
I can pour it all out right from the heart
If its up to me well never be apart
Im in love with my guitar
Im in love with my guitar
Im in love with my guitar
