

Alice In Videoland, Emily

Girls like her grow old alone
Working at some bar some uncle used to own
She always takes the early shift
That's to make it home in time to feed her cats
She's a real bad mother
She's a devil, don't be fooled
Every word she ever spoke was cruel
The only thing to say would be
Take that bitch away from me
I can't stand her anymore than she can stand me
She wanted to be just like you and me
She wanted to be anyone but Emily
She wanted to be loved by someone else
But she hates us like she hates herself
All she does is a part of an act
If you turn around she'll stab you in the back
She leads you on and lies into your face
But I can see right through her a million miles away
She's a real bad mother
She's a devil in disguise
Every word she ever spoke were lies
A real bad mother
She's a devil in disguise
Every word she ever spoke were lies
