

Alice Peacock, Into The Light

Into the Light

by Alice Peacock (from the album Alice Peacock) i'm not asking for perfection i only ask that you try 'cause you keep looking for answers outside yourself when you've had them the whole time it's time to see yourself as holy time to see yourself complete it's time to set aside the anger and the spirit of defeat

come into the light
yeah, be the one you're born to be
wake up from your lonely sleep the shadows can conceal what the heart longs to heal
come into the light

i think it's great that you're searching seek and ye shall find knock and the door shall be opened to the windows of your mind try not to be too impatient go easy on yourself
'cause you got me in your corner if you need a little help

come into the light
the shadows can conceal what the heart wants to heal
come into the light
