Alicia Keys, Butterflies

Lately when I look into your eyes Baby I fly, you're the only one I need in my life Baby, I just don't know how to describe How lovely you make me feel inside You give me butterflies Have me flyin' so high in the sky I can't control the butterflies You give me butterflies Have me flyin' so high in the sky I can't control the butterflies It seems like the likely thing From the start you told me, I would be your queen But never had I imagined such a feeling Joy is what you bring, I wanna give you everything You give me butterflies Have me flyin' so high in the sky I can't control the butterflies You give me butterflies Have me flyin' so high in the sky I can't control the butterflies You and I are destiny I know that you were made for me I can't control it, it driven me It's taken over me and I You give me butterflies Have me flyin' so high in the sky I can't control the butterflies You give me butterflies Have me flyin' so high in the sky I can't control the butterflies You give me butterflies Have me flyin' so high in the sky I can't control, I can't control it You give me butterflies Have me flyin' so high in the sky I can't control the butterflies You give me something I just cant deny Something that's so free I just can't control the way I feel And I don't want to be You give me something I just can't deny Something that's so free I just can't control the way I feel

Oh, I never felt like this
