Alicia Keys, Distance And Time

You are always on my mind All I do is count the days Where are you now? I know I never let you down I will never go away

I really wish that you'd stay but what can we do

All the days that you've been gone I dreamed about you

And I anticipate the day that you will come home, home, home

No matter how far you are No matter how long it takes him

Through distance and time

I'll be waiting

And if you have to walk a million miles

I'll wait a million days to see you smile

Distance and time, I'll be waiting

Distance and time, I'll be waiting

Will you take a train, to meet me where I am

Are you on your way?

I will never do anything to hurt you

I'll never live without you

I really wish that you would stay but what can we do

All the days that you've been gone I dreamed about you

And I anticipate the day that you will come home, home, home

No matter how far you are

No matter how long it takes him

Distance and time, I'll be waiting

And if you have to walk a million miles I'll wait a million days to see you smile

Distance and time

I'll be waiting

No matter how far you are

No matter how long it takes him

Distance and time, I'll be waiting

And you can walk a million miles

I'll wait a million days to see you smile

Through distance and time, I'll be waiting

Oh oh oh

Oh oh oh

Oh oh oh

I'll be waiting

I'll be waiting

Through distance and time

I'll be waiting

You are always on my mind

All I do is count the days

Where are you now?
