

Alicia Keys, Until I Get Over You

Woke up today thinking of you another night that i made my way through so many dreams still left in my mind but they can never come true i press rewind and remember when i close my eyes and i'm with you again but in the end i can still feel the pain - every time i hear your name

Chorus

the sun won't shine since you went away seems like the rains falling every day there's just one heart, where there once was two but that's the way it's gotta be,

'til i get over you....

walked through the park, in the evening air i heard a voice and i thought you were there i run away but i just can't escape memories of you everywhere they say that time will dry the tears but true love burns for a thousand years give my tomorrows for one yesterday just to know i could have you here

when will this river of tears stop fallin' where can i run so i won't feel alone can't walk away when the pain keeps calling i just gotta take it from here on my own but it's so hard to let go

that's the way it's gotta be until i get over you
'til i get over you
