

Alien Ant Farm, Dark In Here

Everything descends,
And my head is dark.
I will not depend,
On anything at all.

Walking through my mind it seems
All my thoughts are hurting me
Tear my veins with apathy,
Till I can no longer bleed.

And it's dark in here,
You can save me, if you try to.
Holding on to fear
I can't live without you near me.

Here we go again
Up against the wall
Full of ill intent,
No regrets at all

Chocking up a travesty
Feel my chest, it's hard to breathe
Feeling up what's not to be,
Make another killing spree

And it's dark in here,
You can save me, if you try to
Holding on to fear
I can't live without you near me.

It's dark in here
You can save me, if you try to
Holding on to fear,
I can't live without you near me.

You can save me if you try to,
I can't live without you.
