

Alien Ant Farm, Drifting Apart

We'll take a trip for two around the world.
We'll have a bird's eye view of every single nation.
I could be what you wanted. I could be what you needed.
We're drifting apart 'cause we all do, and skies seem blue.
Time has two seperate hands and I wonder Where we stand.
We're drifting apart like people do.
We're drifting apart cause we all do.
I'll gravitate toward the only girl.
So with the wind we blew and now we're on a mission.
I could be what you wanted. I could be what you needed.
We're drifting apart 'cause we all do, and skies seem blue.
Time has two seperate hands and I wonder Where we stand.
We're drifting apart like people do.
We're drifting apart cause we all do.
