Alkaline Trio, '97

I've got it now

A thorn in my side the size of a Cadillac

Drive it through

'Cause backin' up now would be next to impossible

I had it all

When I was with you I forgot about everything

Eighteen months

Eighteen months seems like fucking eternity

But you'll be there, to dry my eyes

When I breathe you in, in '97, in '97

I've got it now

Like a thorn in my side the size of a Cadillac

Drive it through

'Cause backin' up now would be next to impossible

I had it all

When I was with you I forgot about everything

Eighteen months

I won't breathe for eighteen months

I don't deserve this, I don't deserve this

I don't deserve this, no I don't deserve this

I don't deserve this, no I don't deserve this

I don't deserve this, no I don't deserve this

No I don't deserve this, no I don't deserve this no
