

Alkaline Trio, Cooking Wine

Sorry I'm late
I was out spoiling my liver
I couldn't wait
The sun was up for far too long today
And I can't see straight
But the two of you look awfully pretty
And I couldn't wait
I've been awake for far too long today

And is it strong enough
To burn away the cooking wine?
And I'm just tired enough
If I closed my eyes I'll sleep for days
I'll sleep for days

Sorry I'm late
I was out spoiling my liver
I couldn't wait
The sun was up for far too long today
And I can't see straight
But the two of you look awfully pretty
You're fucking beautiful

And is it strong enough
To burn away the cooking wine?
And I'm just tired enough
If I closed my eyes I'll sleep for days
I'll sleep for days
