

Alkaline Trio, Do You Wanna Know?

So hello where are we today
Still fighting, still running in place
And now the outline of this lake
Seems to be pointing me away
Honestly, Ive never lied more
To myself all over the floor
Right through my teeth Ive showed you
Just how weak my knees can get
Dont let go my spine is slipping like a fault line
If I go, Ill bury us all
Dont close my door dont leave me out with these mosquitoes
Trying to drink up all my wine
Do you wanna know what my love is?
Do you wanna hear how my song goes?
Do you wanna know what my love is?
Dont say no
Dont say no
So now its up to me to wait
I need you to reciprocate
My heart is ticking like a box
Sent to me by anonymous
And now Im scared to open it
Im always blowing up to bits
Running out of time
Dont let me go, Id fall apart
Dont say you wont follow my heart
Ive kept this deep inside for far too long it cant be wrong
Only one life to give, I cross my heart and hope to live
With you my darling here for evermore
