ALKALINE TRIO

Miscellaneous

Sleepy head

All you've been asking for's been placed in front of you

The headaches, the shaking,

The boredom the boardroom brings

You're scratching at itching

brought by the spiders beneath your skin

The answer in question is over before it begins

Hey there sleepy smile,

I see you've brought your bedroom eyes

Not assuming you wanna keep 'em,

I'm assuming you reckon you won't

All you've been asking for's been placed in front of you

The headaches, the shaking,

The boredom the boardroom brings

You're scratching at itching

brought by the spiders beneath your skin

The answer in question is over before it begins

Hey there sleepy smile,

I see you've brought your bedroom eyes

Not assuming you wanna keep 'em,

I'm assuming you reckon you won't

Nothing to see here but the rain

There's nothing to hold you but the flames

Nothing to see here but the rain

There's nothing to hold you but the flames

Nothing to see here but the rain

There's nothing to hold you but the flames

Nothing to see here but the rain

It's raining flames

Earth to sleepy smile,

Where'd you take those bedroom eyes?

Not assuming you wanna keep 'em,
