

All American Rejects, Too Far Gone

All American Rejects
All American Rejects
Too Far Gone
I should warn you
Things you're feeling, aren't normal now.
Think you need me
It's not easy, let you go some how.

Now we're too far gone,
Hope is such a waste
Every breath you take you give me the burdens bitter taste

You promise that you'd stay
You say you want to go
Your lips provide a shelter for the things that i don't know

Please speak slowly
My heart is learning
Teach me heart-ache,
Stop this burning now.

Wishful thinking
Patience shrinking, bliss is far away
North is calling
Now I'm falling, at your feet please stay
