

All That Remains, Divine

Faded to black holding my tears back while i stand up straight
Blood on my face
Is all I see

Detonate
I'm the master every last breath no fear no disaster
Instigate
To seal my fate

I'm not living for dying
My kingdoms arising
Throw loss on the the pyre
And strike on the iron

Divine
Detach from desire
Accept and inspire
Divine
Breath in and breath out
Cause now it's all in your hands

Crashing Down
Pull the mask back feel the wall crack with the slightest contact

Contemplating and bearing witness
I know the worth of my own existence

Divine
Detach from desire
Accept and inspire
Divine
Breath in and breath out
Cause now it's all in your hands

Crashing Down
Pull the mask back feel the wall crack with the slightest contact

Perceive the evil of treason and make Moves carefully
Their verses coerced and worthless
And cheering treachery

Perceive the evil of treason and make moves carefully
Their verses coerced and worthless cheering their treachery

I'm not living for dying
My kingdoms arising
Throw loss on the the pyre
And strike on the iron

Divine
Detach from desire
Accept and inspire
Divine
Breath in and breath out
Cause it's all in your hands
