Pity

Looking for to-morrow
Before you find to-day
To be abused that way
A sign of the times
Society to blame
You ask yourself the question
Was it self inflicted pain
Blame
Who's to blame
Blame
Who's to blame
The chance of a new life
Or the beginning of the end
Looking to-wards the future
Drowning in self pity
As time presses on
No point in looking back
The past times are gone
