

ALMA, Karma

I should have known from the start
You'd play reckless with my heart
And now you wanna say goodbye
So, I'm gonna let you go
You still gonna pay for thou
For every night

You let me here on my own
For every reason I believe in
Every lie that you told
For every fight
You let me out in the cold
For every reason

I bring the karma
You'd better run, run, run
It's coming your way
I bring the karma
You'd better run, run, run
That bitch don't play
/2x

Niow you're breaking hearts in the dark
You play your games with your cards
You ;ll taste your poison in the end
You should've let me go,
Coz now I'ma let you know
For every reason I believe in
Every lie that you told
For every fight
You let me out in the cold
For every reason

I bring the karma
You'd better run, run, run
It's coming your way
I bring the karma
You'd better run, run, run
That bitch don't play
/2x
