

Almah, Beyond Tomorrow

Drifting

Life has led me here
A unity of facts and chances
That I could not predict

Learning

Reality is free
From all our vague human ambitions
Indifferent to our dreams
Why am I to know what no one knew?
Where is the end?

I ask myself

Is it only an illusion?

And I ask myself

Is it all too real?

I ask myself

What's beyond tomorrow?

Then just ask yourself

Can you let go of hate?

Twisted

We've turned into machines

You are not supposed to question

Rules by which you live

Answers

We're offered every day

Uncertainty is not accepted

Reason is betrayed

Drifting

No matter what you see

You are not supposed to question

The rules by which you live

Knowing

Reality is free

When circumstance is not accepted

Reason is the key

How should I know all the secrets?

All the lies that try to fool me

How I can uncover all the truth?
