

Alok & Bastille, Run Into Trouble

I drove past your house last night
And it all came crashing in Every memory
Didn't recognise your street
Now the light hits differently
When you're not with me

Was I not what you want?
Was I not what you need?
I can't crawl at your feet
This ain't healthy for me

I run into trouble tryin'a let you go
'Cause I still feel the high the love the vertigo
My head's gonna spin around until I let you know
That I just can't get over you
I just can't get over you

I'm at that restaurant you love
Wondering what the hell I want
I'm stupid to come here
Then your favourite song comes on
I roll my eyes and sing along
'Cause I never liked it

Was I not what you want?
Was I not what you need?
I can't crawl at your feet
This ain't healthy for me

I run into trouble tryin'a let you go
'Cause I still feel the high the love the vertigo
My heads gonna spin around until I let you know
That I just can't get over you I just can't get over you

Oh I, oh I just can't get you out of my mind

Oh I, oh I just can't get you out of my mind
I run into trouble tryin'a let you go
'Cause I still feel the high the love the vertigo
My heads gonna spin around until I let you know
That I just can't get over you
I just can't get over you
