Alphaville, Next Generation

(Gold-Lloyd-Echolette)

You're playin' around with money and fear And a power you can't control And the zimmermen grin their perjured grins Sayin': there's no risk at all! Look into the eyes of the next generation I know you would never dare You're layin' the tracks of the ultimate sin Like Himmler and you don't care It only takes a few words, it only takes a few To cut a long story short It only takes a few words... Oh my how it hurts..! Look into the eyes of the next generation... Look into the eyes of the next generation... Your orders filtered through the ranks Intentions you can't hide With tightened lips you're sinking ships In the shadows of the night You presidents of genocide You ministers of crime You're laughing at your firemen From miles behind, From miles behind the lines..! It only takes a few words, it only takes a few To cut a long story short It only takes a few words... Oh my how it hurts..!
