

Alsou, 100% Natural

Natural
Oooh, yeah
At the the centre of me
Baby would you believe
That I am everyything that I was born to be
Why would I cover up
What comes natural enough
I have everything that God has given me
I won't hide, who I am inside
'Cause who I am is everything that makes me me
I'm 100% natural, factual
Nothing more, nothing less
What you see is what you get 100% natural, casual
If you wanted something actual
Then I'm the one for you
I've got my mammas eyes
I've got my daddy's smile
There is no mistaking my identity
Yes it's clear to me my individuality
Is something that I own,
Always makes me strong
I won't hide, who I am inside
'Cause who I am is everything that makes me me
I'm 100% natural, factual
Nothing more, nothing less
