

Altar, In Our Dominion

We're ready to go, we have a bond to discover all the unknown realms We don't care, we'll take it all
We go where others would not dare There'll be a time, when we will count
We matter in our own world
All for one & one for all
Our friendship cannot be hurt
Now we have the courage to rise on the wings For victory
we crown ourselves kings
We challenge your power, challenge your faith We'll rise up to stand for our own
We shout to release the gods of hate Tomorrow you'll never know We'll come we'll see we'll conquer you all We'll come we'll see and make you fall
We'll come we'll see we'll conquer you all
We'll come we'll see and make you fall
In our dominion we'll rise on the wings
In our dominion
we crown ourselves kings
