

Altar, Ode

Let the feast begin
Come and sing with me
Raise the glasses high
To our victory
This is the perfect day
I see that we're complete
Let us celebrate
Answer lust and greed
We share the same mentality
The order of damned souls
Enjoy our mass brutality
We know what's our goal
Tonight we do not care
About the ones who didn't know
About the ones who are not here
About the fools who live below
Indulge our glory
Proudly we stand
Indulge our glory
Of the left hand
Now gather around
To dispose our sins
On ceremonial ground
Let the storm begin
This song is an ode
To twenty years pleasure
To where I belong
That twenty years of metal
Made me strong
