Aly & A.J., In A Second

Don't know where you are Wish I just could be near you I would sail oceans To get a glimpse of how you feel You're all the things I'm looking for Everything and so much more What I think, you are just perfect Could it be that I am worth it? Is this thing an open door? Walk right through to something more You and me My life would change in a second, in a second Don't know how you feel You seem to keep it to yourself Would you climb mountains To show me this is something real? You're all the things I'm looking for Everything and so much more What I think, you are just perfect Could it be that I am worth it? Is this thing an open door? Walk right through to something more You and me My life would change in a second, in a second Could it be? Could it be? You and me, you and me Do I see? Do I see clearly? What I think, you are just perfect Could it be that I am worth it? Is this thing an open door? Walk right through to something more What I think, you are just perfect Could it be that I am worth it? Is this thing an open door? Walk right through to something more You and me My life would change in a second, in a second
