

Amaranthe, Archangel

We brood in a land that is struck by disease
A visage so vivid I see, but it's just so unreal

I mourn for the fallen demons
Leviathan carries my will
Confounded, yet I am immortal
The ultimate torment I feel

Archangel rise, the trinity has synchronized
A remedy for humankind (Oh, oh-oh, oh-oh-oh)
Archangel has fallen down
Against the odds we bring a bloodless sacrifice
From hell on earth to paradise (Oh, oh-oh, oh-oh-oh)
Archangel has fallen down

See a red moon rise up, an omen of grief
The son of the morning descends from Elysium's creed

I sing for the fallen angels
I carry them under my wings
I'm frozen but still undefeated
For the abandoned I sing

Archangel rise, the trinity has synchronized
A remedy for humankind (Oh, oh-oh, oh-oh-oh)
Archangel has fallen down
Against the odds we bring a bloodless sacrifice
From hell on earth to paradise (Oh, oh-oh, oh-oh-oh)
Archangel has fallen down

I sing for the fallen angels
I carry them under my wings
Frozen but still undefeated
For the abandoned I sing

Archangel rise, the trinity has synchronized
A remedy for humankind (Oh, oh-oh, oh-oh-oh)
Archangel has fallen down
Against the odds we bring a bloodless sacrifice
From hell on earth to paradise (Oh, oh-oh, oh-oh-oh)
Archangel has fallen down
