

Amaranthe, Endlessly

Now come let me be your light
There's a truth we can't define
Somehow this time

You won't deny it

What got lost inside
I have found it now
That's a reason why

I will love you endlessly
And even if I cry
I'll be there by your side
For lifetime
I will love you endlessly
And even when we die
You'll be there, by my side
Endlessly

So come let me be your life
After all these sleepless nights
Somehow I know
My strenght will guide you

Thought the darkest times
Know that I have found
All the reasons why

I will love you endlessly
And even if I cry
I'll be there by your side
For a lifetime
I will love you endlessly
And even when we die
You'll be ther, by my side
Endlessly

You know me well
Somehow I'm under your spell
I want you to see me
I'll share every month moment with you

I will love you endlessly
And even if I cry
I'll be there by your side
For lifetime
I will love you endlessly
And even when we die
You'll be there, by my side
Endlessly
