

Amaranthe, Scream My Name

You can never take back what's mine
You can never dictate, it's my life
You can never tell me what to do
I'm already over, I'm over you

Settled the score, as I read the signs
You took my heart, and you stole my pride
Patiently waiting
I set it aside, you're out of my life
You can never steal, never steal my name
It's my game
I'm fierce just like a hurricane
So scream my name

I will never be the same
So don't push me back
I won't be ashamed
Scream my name
I've been waiting day and night
Don't blame me for life
Outrageous, come on
Scream my name
Scream my name

Everyday you try to, to disguise
You just always speak out, then deny
Your autorotation, a black out
You just never cut it
Just cut it out

Different heart, with a different mind
You stole my soul and you rendered me blind
Jealously waiting, rotating
You're out of my life
You can never scream, never scream my name
I'm fierce just like a burning flame

I will never be the same
So don't push me back
I won't be ashamed
Scream my name
I've been waiting day and night
Don't blame me for life
Outrageous, come on
Scream my name

I'm not asking you to understand me
Why I'm so demanding
You can go and scream my name
Tell me that I'm outrageous now
'Cause I won't be ashamed
You can never push me back
So you can scream my name
Hope you see that you can never change me
I'll still be the real me
I'm outrageous scream my name
I will always be the same
So don't push it back
Come on

Settled the score, as I read the signs

I set it aside, you're out of my life
You can never steal, never steal my name
It's my game
So scream my name

I will never be the same
So don't push me back
Scream my name
I've been waiting day and night
Outrageous, come on
So scream my name

I will never be the same
So don't push me back
I won't be ashamed
Scream my name
I've been waiting day and night
