

Amberian Dawn, Dragonflies

Hiding in the highest tree
Waiting for the morning
Dreaming 'bout the evil queen
Shade is sleeping

Thinking 'bout all the years
Of serving and of fighting
While playing hide and seek
Shade is awaking
It's the beginning of a new era

Game on
Fly with me my dragonflies
Lash with your wings of sorrow
'Till tomorrow

Game on
Fight with me my dragonflies
Sing with your golden tone
And let your raging fire burn

Planning for the silent move
To kill the evil queen
Scouting the destroyed land
Shade is stalking

Leading his trusted men
Quietly
Seeking
Destruction of the kingdom
But he's failing
It's the beginning of a new era

Game on
Fly with me my dragonflies
Lash with your wings of sorrow
'Till tomorrow

Game on
Fight with me my dragonflies
Sing with your golden tone
And let your raging fire burn

Now all behold
Shade's fallen now
Wings torn apart
He went beyond
Point of no return

Game on
Fly with me my dragonflies
Lash with your wings of sorrow
'Till tomorrow

Game on
Fight with me my dragonflies
