Amberian Dawn, I'm The One

In front of the line in disguise Waiting for panic panic Guided manic manic There's a reason for this strange behavior Behind his lines the preacher hides

Joining their hands the leading man Raises the panic panic Hanging manic manic And the reason for this strange behavior

The mastermind in front of the line I'm waiting for the sign

I'm the one please pick me I'm the one please pick me Et lux perpetua I'm the one please pick me I'm the one please pick me Et lux perpetua

True believers Medicine receivers Acting in panic panic Enjoying the manic manic There's a reason for this odd behavior In the line the madman guides

One of a kind The mastermind Controlling panic panic Calling for manic manic The only reason for this mad behavior The random mind of the mastermind I'm waiting for the sign

I'm the one please pick me I'm the one please pick me Et lux perpetua I'm the one please pick me I'm the one please pick me Et lux perpetua

This is the hour the right time to take part in the gathering And now sing a song for me and let your minds be free Et lux perpetua

I'm the one please pick me I'm the one please pick me Et lux perpetua I'm the one please pick me I'm the one please pick me Et lux perpetua
