

Amy Jo Johnson, Counting Sheep

Hello
I think I'm now awake
Sorry I made a mistake
Dreaming it was you

Goodbye
To that castle in the sky
To my prince our lives gone by
Guess it was just a lie

The time, the time, the time, the time
Yeah, keeps slipping away
The time, the time, the time, the time
Yeah, keeps slipping away

True love, the idealistic daydream
Close my eyes, 'cause it's only when I'm asleep
Lay me down, idealistic daydream
I'm forever counting your sheep
I just wanna go back to

So I ask you now
How'd you take my breath away?
How'd you touch my soul that day?
Never intending to stay
Never intending to stay

The time, the time, the time, the time
Yeah, keeps slipping away

True love, the idealistic daydream
Close my eyes, 'cause it's only when I'm asleep
Lay me down, idealistic daydream
I'm forever counting your sheep
I just wanna go back to

True love, the idealistic daydream
Close my eyes, 'cause it's only when I'm asleep
True love, the idealistic daydream
Close my eyes, 'cause it's only when I'm asleep
Lay me down, idealistic daydream
I'm forever counting your sheep
I just wanna go back to sleep
