

Amy Pearson, Does Anybody?

I couldn't come closer,
I couldn't let go,
didn't wanna get over you, don't wanna know what I know, and god and known angels, stead of facing the truth, there's dust on my shadow, and I'm afraid to lose,

(pre chorus)

cause we are willing to be torn into,
for one taste of bliss, oh

(chorus)

does anybody have a heart, that isn't made of broken parts,
pieces of love pieces of pain, oh
and though I don't know where to start,
does anybody have a heart,
that doesn't wanna fall in love again,

oh oh oh oh,

does anybody have a heart,

(verse 2)

if love is a fire,
I'm a moth to a flame,
and though I've been burned, I return over and over again,

for one taste of bliss oh yeah,

(chorus)

does anybody have a heart,
that isn't made of broken parts,
does anybody have a heart,
that doesn't wanna fall in love again,

oh oh oh oh,

does anybody have a heart,

(verse 3)

every thought leads to you, all to leave me wanted more,

(chorus)

that isn't made of broken parts,
does anybody have a heart,
that isn't made of broken parts,
does anybody have a heart,

oh oh oh oh,

does anybody have a heart,

does anybody have a heart, that doesn't wanna fall in love,
