

Ana Johnston, A Song For Everyone

You say you got the answer for me,
and that I,
I need to listen to you,
'cause you know exactly what I should be, well I dont think so.
babapapadaa
You really dont have a clue,
So get lost.
Here is a song for everyone.
I wanna let go and have some fun.
Cant undo what cant be undone. So losing up its time to get down .
A song for everyone, i f you don t like it so what,
I do.
Money makes the world go round,
in the end its gonna bring us so down,
so maybe if somebody stole your crown,
you would let it go.
Babapapadaa what the hell do I know,
Keep on.
Here is a song for everyone.
I wanna let go and have some fun.
Cant undo what cant be undone.
So losing up its time to get down.
A song for everyone,
if you dont like it so what,
I do
You say you want the best for me,
and that you will do it all for free.
Well I know that your talk is cheap, you want full control. Babapapadaa you never get what you want,
so get lost.
Here is a song for everyone.
I wanna let go and have some fun.
Cant undo what cant be undone.
So losing up its time to get down.
A song for everyone,
if you don t like it so what,
I do
Here is a song for everyone.
I wanna let go and have some fun.
Cant undo what cant be undone.
So losing up its time to get down.
A song for everyone,
if you don t like it so what.
