

Anastacia, American Night

Mirror on the wall
Will we rise or fall
It's a miracle
It's a beautiful thing
Its so magical
How you make my heart sing

Am I wasting time
Looking for the signs
Where do we go from here
It's not really clear how
Such a winding road
I just need to know now

Cause you're fading out of sight
Getting lost in American nights
And I'm waking up to find
I'm falling
Keep falling
For you

Why don't you look into my eyes
I wear no disguise
It is unthinkable
To live without fear
I'm not invisible
I'm standing right here

Cause you're fading out of sight
Getting lost in American nights
And I'm waking up to find
Well I'm falling
I keep falling

Oh mirror on the wall
Will we rise or will we fall
Sometimes you lose it all

Cause you're fading out of sight
Getting lost
Getting lost
Getting lost in American
In American nights

Cause you're fading out of sight
I'm getting lost in American nights
(And I'm waking up to find)
I'm waking up to find
I'm falling
I keep falling
For you

For you
