Anathema, Cerulean Twilight

I'm lying here, oh so peaceful ..... ..... In serene harmony I'm dreaming yet I feel awake I'm dreaming yet I am awake

Subjected to pain. Dark screams repent

And in a foreboding rage, a soul will die ..... a soul will die

My mind is burning, I'm burning I can't feel you anymore Have I reached my point? Will I drown in delusion?

The winds fell silent
And in my cerulean twilight
I left myself once again
..... it's overwhelming
Suffer yourself, and let me die here awhile
