

Anathema, In The Dog's House

Tilted just a bit to the wrong side
Mother Mary your tea's in the oven
My head's got caught in the red tape
Voodoo sunset, morning Jesus
Marilyn Manson just fell over
Cos his dress got caught in his high heels
Twist the world upside downstairs
It's all about the shouting
And all I need is you
But you don't know it's true
Morten Harkets' brand new go cart
Foul mouthed and smelling of onions
Lost my keys and I can't get in now
Fine day for a queen she union
And all I need is you
But you don't know it's true
