Anberlin, Driving

And we're driving just as fast as we can And we're racing to outrun the wind It's just me and you and you and me So wild and so young, bright-eyed and free

And we're trying to get out of here As a small town romance draws ever near And I swear we're in the movies The highlights come when you kiss me

And the stereo sings our song And we don't hesitate sing along

Drive to dream to live we could see the world tonight. hear the hope tommorow we could see the w

And we're miles from the middle of nowhere
And neither of us seems to care
And that's why I love you so-o-o
So shut your mouth girl no one has to know
And times seems to drip like Dali
And neither of us has a place to be
So once and forever tell me all, tell me all of your dreams

And the stereo sings our song And we don't hesitate just sing

Drive to dream to live we could see the world tonight. hear the hope tommorow we could see the w

Drive to dream to live we could see the world tonight. hear the hope tommorow we could see the w

Is this what driving brings?
All the while we're singing off key

Is this what driving brings?
All the while we're singing off key

And we're driving just as fast as we can And we're racing to outrun the wind And the stereo sings our song We don't hesitate just sing along And the stereo sings our song We don't hesitate just sing

Is this what driving brings all the while we're singing off key?

Is this what driving brings All the while we're singing off key

Is this what driving brings...
