And One, Only One

Nothing would be better When you turn away Give me a second chance So let me stay

The smile in your face Tells it for sure I want to be with you No matter rich or poor

No matter rich or poor

Whats the reason why You dont talk to me The tenderness you giving me Makes me free

Ive got that feeling Of golden times But I see everthing What glitters isnt gold

No matter rich or poor

Youre the only one in my dreams Youre the only one so hear my screams All the things seem to blend When I touch your skin and hold your hand
