

Anders Johansson, 1000 Miles

As I hear your voice on the telephone, so far away, but yet so close.
How this turns out baby I should have known, you blinded me and my reality.
It's not far but too late, it's not far but too late. Baby I should have known 'cause I love you so!

Carry strength my love, I wanna be close, closer so I can feel.
Every breath you take 'cause you're out of reach of my heart, you're a 1000 miles away.

What am I supposed to do, ahh, when I can't stop thinking of you, ahh.
What am I supposed to do, ahh!

Carry strength my love, I wanna be close, closer so I can feel.
Every breath you take 'cause you're out of reach of my heart, you're a 1000 miles away.

And yes... A 1000 miles away.
