

Andra Day, The Only Way Out

If you could look inside my life and use my eyes would you pity me Would you see the desperate nights and all the lies that brought me to my knees i keep thinking that i have to make you fall the way I fell from your betrayal to bring me peace of mind I won't let you move along, just walk away and wear the cape like your some hero

I can't hear love cause we're at war and revenge is so loud
and the bombs are so proud but oh I'm in a cage
and I hear mercy say I'm hear now
and it's the only way out but revenge is so loud
but I'm still in a cage and I hear mercy saying now it's the only way out

I used to hear my father say counter play ends in defeat I said I'd never be that way try to make you pay because it would cost me But you owe me so much more than what you gave to this guess every story twists people tell me let it go and forgive

it's the only way

Oh (4x)

Mercy is the only way out Mercy gave me my way out
