

Andrea Bocelli, Can't Help Falling In Love

Wise men say
Only fools rush in
But I cant help
Falling in love with you.

Shall I stay
Would it be a sin
If I cant help
Falling in love with you

Like a river flows
Surely to the sea
Darling, so it goes
Some things are meant to be

So take my hand
Take my whole life, too
For I cant help
Falling in love with you

Some things are meant to be

Take my hand
Take my whole life, too
For I cant help
Falling in love with you

For I cant help
Falling in love with you
