

Andreas Johnson, The Pretty Ones

What a pretty thing to say what a pretty thought to think when the nights is closing in we star together and its a never ~ ending show its the everlasting dream when you feel its time to go we go together we are the pretty ones we are the pretty ones
and we, we really dont give a damn no we really dont give a damn
we are the pretty ones what a perfect crime we are what a perfect life we lead when the lights are turning low we are forever in this everlasting show in this never ending scheme when you feel its time to leave we leave together
we are the pretty ones
and we, we really dont give a damn
maybe were falling apart maybe our love is not enough
we are the pretty ones
and we, we really dont give a damn
and we really dont give a damn
