

Andy Bell, Shaking My Soul

Shaking my soul now, baby
Down to the very foundation
Back in the day now, honey
You were my one temptation
Starting to drive my soul now
Down to the ground and through the dance floor
Back in the day now, honey, I'm begging you
Please, just stop cheating
Back a while there was a ring of truth
Pick a style and break it through the roof
You can tell a looker by the way she moves
Sex all over by the way he grooves
Everybody's in love
Except me and for you and the same old crew
Everybody's in love
Except me and for you and the whole darned crew
Shaking my soul now, baby
Down to the very foundation
Back in the day now, honey
You were my one temptation
Starting to drive my soul now
Down to the ground and through the dance floor
Back in the day now, honey, I'm begging you
Please, just stop cheating
Please, just stop cheating
Never hide from what your eyes don't see
A better lie is what the truth told me
Every night I'm in the same old scene
Take your eyes off I won't mention
Everybody's in love
Except me and for you and the same old crew
Everybody's in love
Except me and for you and the whole darned crew
Shaking my soul now, baby
Down to the very foundation
Back in the day now, honey
You were my one temptation
Starting to drive my soul now
Down to the ground and through the dance floor
Back in the day now, honey
I'm begging you
Please, just stop cheating
Shaking my soul now, baby
Down to the very foundation
Back in the day now, honey
You were my one temptation
Starting to drive my soul now
Down to the ground and through the dance floor
Back in the day now, honey, I'm begging you
Please, just stop cheating
